Three Pronged Pak-Offensive Against India

939. SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the report appearing in the Times of India dated June 30, 1997, captioned "Pakistan offensive";

(b) if so, the details of the three-pronged offensive to be adopted by Pakistan as a reaction to India's Prithvi Missile, as per Government's official information; and

(c) what is Government's reaction to this offensive?

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRI IK. GUJRAL): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Government are aware that Pakistan maintains a military arsenal far in excess of its legitimate defence requirements. Government are also aware of persistent Pakistani propaganda regarding the Prithvi missile, including letters addressed by the Prime Minister of Pakistan to the Heads of State/Government of the P-5 countries. Such propaganda is inconsistent with the firm intention of both countries to eschew hostile propaganda and provocative actions. This intention is contained in the Joint Statement issued at the conclusion of the Foreign Secretary—level talks held in Islamabad in June 1997.

(c) Government closely monitor all developments including those relating to Pakistan's missile programme and are committed to taking all necessary steps to
